~~Literary Translation and the Rediscovery of Reading ...~~

The main premise of Literary Translation and the Rediscovery of Reading is thus to demonstrate the relevance of literary translation as a manifestation of Scott's version of intralingual reading, precisely in order to theorize "the literariness of the translational act itself." According to Scott, while traditional approaches to interlingual translation assume a linguistic ignorance of the source language by a potential monolingual reader, his own approach to translation aims to ...
