A Space Marine Chapter Homeworld, also called a Chapter planet, is an Imperial planetological classification for a world that serves as a base for a Space Marine Chapter's fortress-monastery. For some Chapters the world also serves as their sole recruiting world; other Chapters draw their recruits from several planets.

If you really want to play a Space Marine in a satisfying way, you need to play one of the W40K RPGs. You can play a Space Marine expy in D&D, but if you try to do things like "burn the mutants" or "purge the witches and heretics" the same way a Space Marine does, you're probably doing to be a wanted criminal after the first week.

Space Marines are androids/cyborgs and fixed in their armour. And according to a story I started writing, Space Marines and Eldar can grow up on the same planet together as best friends, until conflict brings them against each other and their friendship is challenged. Edit: A fellow redditor just reminded me of Kah-rone and T-zentch
