I have a Simpson Eziset 7.5 kg part number SWT704, it continually goes out balance while trying to spin, to the point where I attempt to rebalance the clothes more than 10 times over the course of the wash cycle. Usually I have no luck and am unable to get the load to finish, and end up having to hang the clothes out dripping wet.

Our Simpson EZI set 7.5kg top loader washing machine has stopped working completely. The LED screen does not come on at all. I have checked the power point with other appliances and it the power point is fine. Do you think this could be an issue with the motherboard and if so is it worth getting the machine repaired or just replace it.
